

TENNESSEE GENERAL ASSEMBLY
FISCAL REVIEW COMMITTEE

FISCAL NOTE

HB 2052 - SB 2071

February 13, 2016

SUMMARY OF BILL: Increases the time period that a non-requesting party has to contest a request for transfer in the transferor court in intercounty enforcement and modification of child support and child custody cases, from 15 to 20 days from the date a notice to transfer was mailed by filing a motion.

ESTIMATED FISCAL IMPACT:

NOT SIGNIFICANT

Assumptions:

- Extending the time period by five days will not significantly affect the current policies or operations of the Department of Children's Services or the Department of Human Services
- Any increase in motions filed due to an increase in the number of days to contest a transfer will not be significant. Any fiscal impact will be not significant.

CERTIFICATION:

The information contained herein is true and correct to the best of my knowledge.
